

The Picture of Dorian Gray

Oscar Wilde

“How sad it is!”, murmured Dorian Gray with his eyes still fixed upon his own portrait. “How sad it is! I shall grow old, and horrible, and dreadful. But this picture will remain always young. It will never be older than this particular day of June.”

“. . . If it were only the other way! If it were I who was to be always young, and the picture that was to grow old!
